For now, sustainable-bliss.com is a free site with a paid membership sister site currently in "beta" at rGlohJahWwans.com. At the moment, I'm wrestling with the whole idea of needing to pay money for information, so the information is free for now. However, I will be including advertising at sustainable-bliss.com, while there will be no advertising at rGlohJahWwans.com. Also, rGlohJahWwans.com will be a sustainable bliss savings club in that if you buy from a link at sustainable-bliss.com, if that link has an affiliate program, I will receive a referral fee. If however, you join rGlohJahWwans.com and purchase there, then I will forego or refund all of the affiliate fees, so that members get that amount as a discount.

That's the concept for now. Be in touch, if you wish to participate.
