Allright! Well, it's been a few months coming, but all rGlohJahWwans.com content is now available for FREE at sustainable-bliss.com! Really mega super cool!

More features will be added to attract visitors, members, and collaboration. These topics are too important to charge for right now, and frankly, the whole sales process was really unappealing to me. I couldn't figure out a way to sell this information and not feel like I was depriving good, willing people of it. Some people have deeply and aggressively criticized me for my stance. For example, I could put partial content out at YouTube and then attract people to the "complete" content with payment.

So, who knows, maybe this site will just become a hobby for me, or maybe it could grow into something bigger, better and more wonderful. At the moment, rGlohJahWwans.com is in beta, and will be set up as a "sustainable future savings club," now that's something worth paying for!

Until that's all set up, enjoy this content, let me know what you think, and let's create a blissful world!

Peace, love, health, blessings, and a big ear-to-ear grin to you,

Dainis

PS: Yes, it can be uncomfortable when people you don't know sign their emails with "love," but in this case, I'm not implying that I know you, or really that I "love" you in a personal or intimate sense...what I'm saying is that I'm sending you love with this message, whoever and wherever you are.

PPS: If you know how to help me ethically make money with a site like this, just get in touch.
