Hi, my name is Dainis W. Michel, and I'm a composer, entrepreneur, and I'm not really sure if you could call me an activist, I'm more of a calmivist, a peacivist, or maybe a "transformivist," and maybe we can come up with a better word together.

I'm the founder of rGlohJahWwans.com, where we present real solutions for individuals, families and businesses who wish to nurture themselves and the earth into a state of joyous health, abundance and wealth.

Welcome to our growing community of people living or on the way to achieving a robust green life of harmonious joy abundance health wealth wisdom and nurturing sustainability. I'll show you how to get started and where to find information, and I'll show you around the site so that you can access all of rGlohJahWwans.com's features and so that you can start enjoying the benefits of your membership right away.

Once you've watched this Welcome Video, I recommend you read your "Action Module," for the first month.

Our "Action Modules" come in month by month, and they're sequenced to ease you into an rGlohJahWwans lifestyle. The first "Action Module" has the theme "Awareness," the second is about "Contact," and you'll see the rest as they come in.

You can also enjoy all of the features of rGlohJahWwans.com and benefit from the wide range of informational resources rGlohJahWwans.com provides.

I'll just mention a few of them...

During your membership, you have access to rGlohJahWwans.com's exclusive "Instant Solutions Reports." These are condensed, short reports that contain concise how-to guides for you to achieve everything rGlohJahWwans stands for.

For example, we're going to diffuse climate change while having a total blast, mega-fun, super-smiles, happy giggles...basically a major party...the whole time! Solutions to issues like transportation, water, pollution, and overpopulation are just as fun and easy to implement. The rGlohJahWwans.com Instant Solutions Reports are currently being commented on, approved, critiqued, and even co-authored by leading experts! As suggestions come in, they'll be updated and published. Again, rGlohJahWwans Instant Solutions Reports are concise, clear, short reports about what you can do right now, with however much money you have or don't have, in order to create a lifestyle of sustainable bliss for yourself and the future.

We will transform ourselves, our communities, and our world all the while getting richer, happier, more sustainable, more satisfied, and more loving with ourselves and each other.

Now, some people have called me an idealist, but this isn't an ideal. This is not a vision, a dream, a target, or a goal. This is an instruction manual. Not one written by me, but for now, "assembled" and edited by me. Also, I invite everyone to corroborate, discuss, critique, or make suggestions for improving the rGlohJahWwans.com Instant Solutions Reports. The Reports start with you. You don't need to go off and "save the world," you start with you and go from there. It's practical, it's easy, it's enriching, nurturing wealth-building and fun.

In the "Micro-Media" section, you'll find Interviews, News Alerts,

Features, News Feeds, and e-vestigations. rGlohJahWwans isn't a "news source," it's a "solutions source," and your participation is key for us to craft the most effective solutions for our global challenges. Basically, we're done with non-actionable news. When a running conversation would help us understand a situation or solution better, we start an ongoing online e-versation. The news story is the very beginning and can turn into an e-versation or an e-vestigation, and I invite your participation.

Also, the satiric news items are meant to be funny, but they're definitely hot and spicy...kind of like the news equivalent of cayenne pepper.

Definitely check out the interviews. Now these are people who are either living or well on their way to living an rGlohJahWwans lifestyle. They are already embodying the change that many of us are still seeking. Let's not leave it up to them to save the world. Let's learn from them and do our part, and let me know, if there's anyone you'd like to see interviewed.

In the future, we'll be putting together an rGlohJahWwans experts area, where you'll be able to ask these leading "transformivists" questions and get feedback from them. You can nominate yourself or someone you know as an rGlohJahWwans expert by clicking on "Contact Us" and sending me an email.

Your feedback will help make rGlohJahWwans.com a more effective resource for creating an world of abundance for yourself and the future.

So, we're open to receiving feedback and let us know about

- experts
- successes
- news alerts
- your progress
- how you can help

and anything else you find might helpful.

I'm Dainis Michel, thank you for your attention and time.
